

Soul of the Southside Festival Merch Design Contest

The Soul of the Southside arts and music festival is hosting a shirt designing contest. The winning design will receive a cash prize of $250. Show off your creativity and submit your design for a chance to be featured on official festival merchandise. Good luck!

Contest Rules and Guidelines

1. The contest is open to everyone who is interested in designing a t-shirt.
2. Designs should be original and not copied from any existing designs or copyrighted material.
3. Designs should be submitted in a high-resolution digital format, preferably in PNG or PDF.
4. The designs should be appropriate for all ages and should not contain any offensive or explicit content.
5. Each participant can submit multiple designs, but each design should be submitted separately.
6. The submission should include a brief description of the design and the inspiration behind it.
7. The contest organizers reserve the right to reject any design that does not meet the above guidelines.
8. The winning design will be chosen by a panel of judges, and the decision will be final.
9. The winning design will be printed on t-shirts, and the designer will receive a prize of $250 and must be willing to submit a W9 tax form.
 - a. The winning designer agrees that the Work (and all rights including, without limitation, copyright) belongs to and shall be the sole and exclusive property of The CRWN LLC and the Soul of the Southside Festival.